Dear Ms. Williams

I have today given patent attorney, Ruden, McClosky, Smith, Schuster & Russel P.A. permission to file a continuation-in-part on my behalf claiming priority from my application 10/555,615.

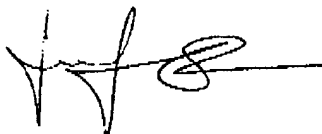

Although I am filing this continuation-in-part I do not wish for my existing application to become abandoned just yet until I have sought further advice. If it is possible for me to file a continuation-in-part while not just yet surrendering my current application 10/555,615, this is what I wish to do..

Ruden, McClosky, Smith, Schuster & Russel P.A. have my permission to a specification as follows in the facsimile.

Ruden, McClosky will also be paying any relevant fees on my behalf associated the continuation-in-part application and extensions of time.

Yours sincerely
